

Summer Ethics Fellowship for Law Students & Recent Graduates

FASPE

Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics

“Participating in this fellowship was probably one of the most important things I could have done at this stage in my career. The experience forced us as fellows to do the necessary but painful and gut-wrenching task of looking for ourselves and our communities not only among the victims but among the perpetrators of societal inequities.”

— KRISTIN SHARMAN, 2022 LAW FELLOW

PROGRAM DATES

May 26 – June 9, 2023

APPLICATION DEADLINE

January 3, 2023

ELIGIBILITY

FASPE Law applicants must fit into one of the following three categories: 1) be enrolled in a JD program as a 2L or 3L at the time of their application; OR 2) be working in the legal profession (including a clerkship) at the time of their application and have received a JD degree no earlier than May 2019; OR 3) for applicants from education systems where law school training does not take place at the post-graduate level, applicants should have completed their requisite legal training in the applicable jurisdiction and be working as a trainee or associate (no more senior than a 4th year associate).

FASPE programs are non-denominational. Candidates of all religious, ethnic and cultural backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

FASPE Law (Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics) is a fully-funded two-week international summer program that uses the conduct of lawyers and judges in Nazi Germany as a launching point and backdrop for an intensive study of contemporary legal ethics and leadership.

Fellows visit Auschwitz and other sites in Germany and Poland where they consider how to apply the lessons of history to the ethical challenges they will face in their careers.

All program costs are covered, including the equivalent of round-trip travel from New York to Europe, as well as all European travel, lodging and food.
