40. No provision in this Stipulation shall infringe upon or restrict any Class Member's ability to obtain individual relief through an administrative hearing or a judicial proceeding, including but not limited to a proceeding brought pursuant to CPLR Article 78, so long as the Class Member is not seeking to challenge the form or sufficiency of a Sanction Notice or any version of the Local Form Equivalent Notice of Conciliation that was revised prior to the Effective Date, on any of the grounds raised in the Second Amended Complaint.

Interest shall accrue on the amounts payable to Class Counsel pursuant to Paragraph 41 at the rate set forth in CPLR § 5004 beginning on the ninety-first (91st) day after the State Comptroller has, in accordance with CPLR § 5003-a(c), determined that all documents and information required to effectuate the State Fee Payments have been received by him.

44. Named Plaintiffs, Class Members and Class Counsel agree that any taxes, or interest or penalties on taxes, on the State Fee Payments shall be the sole and complete responsibility of Class Counsel, and that Class Counsel shall have no claim, right or cause of action against the State Defendant, the State of New York (including, but not limited to, any and all agencies, departments, and subdivisions thereof), or any of their officials, employees, or agents, whether in their individual or official capacities, on account of any and all such taxes, interest or penalties.

45. Named Plaintiffs, Class Members and Class Counsel agree that neither the State Defendant, the State of New York (including, but not limited to, any and all agencies, departments, and subdivisions thereof), nor any of their officials, employees, or agents, whether in their individual or official capacities, shall be responsible for any liens of any kind (including, but not limited to, any and all workers' compensation, tax, or child support liens) which may attach to the State Fee Payments. Named Plaintiffs, Class Members and Class Counsel shall have no claim, right, or cause of action against the State Defendant, the State of New York (including, but not limited to, any and all agencies, departments, and subdivisions thereof), or any of their officials, employees, or agents, whether in their individual or official capacities, on account of any and all such liens.

46. In consideration of the State Fee Payments and other good and valuable consideration, Named Plaintiffs, Class Members, and Class Counsel, on their own behalf and on behalf of the respective heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors, and assigns of each of themselves and on behalf of any future Class Members (collectively, the "Releasing Parties"), hereby jointly and severally release the State Defendant, the State of New York, and any present or former employees, agents, officials, departments, agencies, representatives, and directors, their successors and assigns and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, and transferees, and each of them (collectively, the "Released State Parties"), from any and all liability, claims, or rights of action for attorneys' fees, costs, disbursements and expenses in or arising from this Action that the Named Plaintiffs, Class Members, or Class Counsel had, have, or may in the future have related to the claims in this Action or arising from any activities of Class Counsel in connection with the Action or this Stipulation, and this Stipulation and Order shall be deemed a release to that effect. This limitation shall not apply to work done solely on a successful enforcement motion under Section VIII of this Stipulation provided that Class Counsel have complied, as a condition precedent to such a motion, with the requirements of Section VIII of this Stipulation.

47. The undersigned attorneys for Plaintiffs further represent that to the best of their knowledge there are no other attorneys having a lien for services rendered to Plaintiffs pursuant to the provisions of Section 475 of the New York Judiciary Law or otherwise in this Action, or in any other action or proceeding alleging any of the acts, transactions, occurrences, or omissions asserted in this Action.

48. Nothing contained in this Stipulation and Order shall be deemed to be an agreement or an admission by the State Defendant as to the reasonableness of the number of hours spent or the particular hourly rates claimed by Class Counsel, or the entitlement of Named Plaintiffs, Class Members or Class Counsel to any attorney's fees, costs, disbursements or expenses in connection with this Action, and the State Defendant does not waive any defenses to any and all future application by Named Plaintiffs, Class Members or Class Counsel therefor.

53. Named Plaintiffs, Class Members and Class Counsel agree that neither the City Defendant, the City of New York (including, but not limited to, any and all agencies,

This limitation shall not apply to work done solely on a successful enforcement motion under Section

VIII of this Stipulation provided that Class Counsel have complied, as a condition precedent to such a motion, with the requirements of Section VIII of this Stipulation.

The undersigned attorneys for Plaintiffs further represent that to the best of their knowledge there are no other attorneys having a lien for services rendered to Plaintiffs pursuant to the provisions of Section 475 of the New York Judiciary Law or otherwise in this Action, or in any other action or proceeding alleging any of the acts, transactions, occurrences, or omissions asserted in this Action.

56. Nothing contained in this Stipulation and Order shall be deemed to be an agreement or an admission by the City Defendant as to the reasonableness of the number of hours spent or the particular hourly rates claimed by Class Counsel, or the entitlement of Named Plaintiffs, Class Members or Class Counsel to any attorney's fees, costs, disbursements or expenses in connection with this Action, and the City Defendant does not waive any defenses to any and all future application by Named Plaintiffs, Class Members or Class Counsel therefor.

SECTION VIII: CONTINUING JURISDICTION

57. As of the Effective Date, the jurisdiction of this Court shall terminate for all purposes except that the Court shall maintain continuing jurisdiction over this Action for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulation, subject to Paragraphs 58, 59, 60, and 61 of this Stipulation.

58. The jurisdiction of this Court shall terminate at the conclusion of thirty (30) days after Defendants provide to Class Counsel a final Closed Case Sweep Date Report pursuant to the terms set forth in Paragraph 28, except that if Plaintiffs move pursuant to Paragraphs 59 or 60 to enforce the terms of this Stipulation, jurisdiction shall continue until: (a) such motion is decided; (b) such time as directed by the Court, if the motion is decided favorably for Plaintiffs; or (c) such time as may be extended by the parties by modification of this Stipulation.

59. During the time prior to the termination of the Court's jurisdiction pursuant to the terms set forth in Paragraph 58, if Class Counsel believes that one or more Defendants have failed to comply with the terms of this Stipulation, Class Counsel shall notify all Defendants' counsel in writing of the nature and specifics of the alleged failure to comply at least thirty (30) days before any motion is made for enforcement of this Stipulation or for contempt against the noncompliant Defendant. Unless otherwise resolved, the parties' counsel shall meet within the 30-day period following notice to Defendants' counsel in an attempt to arrive at a resolution of the claims. If no resolution is reached within thirty (30) days from the date of notice, Named Plaintiffs may move this Court for an order for all appropriate relief against the noncompliant Defendant.

60. During the twenty-four (24) months following the Effective Date, if Class Counsel disagrees with Defendants' determination of whether an individual is a Class Member under Paragraph 23 of this Stipulation or whether a Class Member has been afforded the correct relief under Paragraphs 24, 25, or 27 of this Stipulation, Class Counsel shall notify Defendants' counsel in writing of the nature and specifics of the disagreement. Defendants' counsel will respond to any such communication within seven (7) business days. If Defendants agree that a Class Member has not received full relief under this Stipulation, they shall issue Retroactive Relief to such Class Member within ten (10) business days of such determination. If Defendants advise Class Counsel that they believe an individual identified by Class Counsel pursuant to this Paragraph is not a Class Member or has received all Retroactive Relief to which he or she is eligible under this Stipulation, Defendants' response shall include the specific basis for their conclusion. If Defendants fail to respond to a notification from Class Counsel pursuant to this Paragraph within thirty (30) days, or if, after Defendants respond to Class Counsel's notification, there remains a dispute as to whether an individual is a Class Member under Paragraph 23 of this Stipulation or the whether a Class Member has been afforded the correct relief under Paragraphs 24, 25, or 27 of this Stipulation, Named Plaintiffs may move this Court for an order resolving such dispute.

61. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 59, Named Plaintiffs may move this Court for an order for all appropriate relief against a noncompliant Defendant without waiting thirty (30) days if Named Plaintiffs' motion is based in whole or in part on information received by Class Counsel less than thirty (30) days before the date that the jurisdiction of this Court is due to lapse pursuant to Paragraph 58 of this Stipulation.

SECTION IX: GENERAL PROVISIONS

If the Court disapproves the Stipulation or any material part thereof, or if the Stipulation is modified or reversed in any material respect by an order or decision that is final and unappealable, then this Stipulation shall be canceled and deemed null and void, and the parties shall revert to their respective positions in the Action as of the date prior to their signing this Stipulation.

63. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to be an admission by the Defendants or any officer or employee thereof, of any of Named Plaintiffs' or Class Members' allegations or of Named Plaintiffs' or Class Members' standing to pursue any relief, nor an admission by the Defendants that they have in any manner or way violated a Named Plaintiffs' or a Class Members' rights, or the rights of any other person or entity, as defined in the constitutions, statutes, ordinances, rules, or regulations of the United States, the State of New York, or the City

65. This Stipulation shall not be admissible in any other litigation or settlement negotiation, except for enforcement of the provisions contained herein as set forth in Section VIII of this Stipulation.

66. Nothing contained in this Stipulation shall be deemed to constitute a policy or practice of the Defendants, including OTDA and HRA.

67. All parties to this Stipulation have participated in its drafting; consequently, any ambiguity shall not be construed for or against any party.

68. The construction, interpretation, operation, effect and validity of this Stipulation, and all documents necessary to effectuate it shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to conflicts of law, except to the extent that federal law may govern.

EXHIBIT ASAMPLEINFORMATION ABOUT SPECIAL "SMITH SETTLEMENT" PAYMENT

Due to a settlement in the lawsuit Smith et al. v. Proud et al., Sup. Ct. N.Y. County No. 400903/2010, (1) a special payment described below will be made through the Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card for your household; and (2) the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA) is adjusting, or has adjusted, the sanction history for each household member that was affected by the circumstances of the lawsuit.

The lawsuit alleged that two notices — the "Conciliation Notice" and the "Notice of Decision" (also called the "Notice of Intent to Change Benefits") — that you, or someone in your household, received prior to sanctioning did not comply with New York Social Services Law § 341(1)(a)-(b). The Smith settlement concerns all such notices that were sent to you, or someone in your household, between July 8, 2007 and December 22, 2015.

New York City Human Resource Administration (HRA)'s records show that you, or someone in your household, received one or more of these notices prior to being sanctioned for failing or refusing to comply with a public assistance work requirement. As a result, your household is receiving this special payment.

The special payment is based on the following factors:

- What form of the Notice of Conciliation you, or someone in your household, received (i.e. the relevant Tier);
- Whether the sanctions against you, or a household member, were for a first, second, or third violation;
- The minimum durational time for each relevant sanction;
- Whether you or the sanctioned member of your household attended your/his/her conciliation appointment; and
- The size of the relevant individual's household at the time of each sanction.

Further, pursuant to the Smith settlement, OTDA has adjusted, or will adjust, the sanction history for each affected member of your household by reducing your/his/her cumulative sanction count by the number of relevant Public Assistance (PA) employment sanctions imposed from July 8, 2007 to December 22, 2015.

SAMPLE

The special payment has, or will be made, as follows:

Payment of $191.25 This was based on the monthly amount of $63.75 X (3 month sanction duration), for a relevant Tier 1 PA employment sanction.

Payment of $382.50 This was based on the monthly amount of $63.75 X (6 month sanction duration), for a relevant Tier 1 PA employment sanction.

Payment of $157.50 This was based on the monthly amount of $26.25 X (6 month sanction duration), for a relevant Tier 3 PA employment sanction.

Total payment $731.25

This/these amount(s) was/were calculated by taking the appropriate amount shown in the chart below multiplied by the minimum required duration of each sanction.

PA Household Size	Tier 1 HRA sent a Conciliation Notice form before 12/6/10 and you attended conciliation	Tier 2 HRA sent a Conciliation Notice form before 12/6/10 and you did not attend conciliation	Tier 3 HRA sent a Conciliation Notice form revised on or after 12/6/10 and you attended conciliation	Tier 4 HRA sent a Conciliation Notice form revised on or after 12/6/10 and you did not attend conciliation
1	$117.00	$93.75	$41.25	$33.75
2-5	$63.75	$51.75	$33.75	$26.25
6-8	$48.75	$39.00	$26.25	$18.75
9 and over	$43.50	$33.00	$18.75	$11.25

IMPORTANT

You must access this money within 90 days from the date on this notice – or else it won't be available anymore. If you access other money in your EBT account in those 90 days, then you will have more time to use your Smith special payment – 180 days from the date on this notice.

Questions?

If you have a question about the special payment or how the sanction history for members in your household was changed, you can call Class Counsel at (XXX) XXX-XXXX and say you have a question about your Smith notice.

EXHIBIT BNOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION
CONCERNING SANCTIONS IMPOSED ON CASH ASSISTANCE RECIPIENTS IN NEW YORK CITY

Are you a New York City resident whose household, from July 8, 2007 to December 22, 2015, had its Public Assistance (PA) benefits reduced or stopped by the New York City Human Resources Administration (HRA) because you did not comply with work rules? If so, you should read this notice, which provides information about the settlement of a lawsuit involving the alleged failure of HRA to issue a proper Notice of Conciliation and/or Notice of Intent to Change Benefits.

Background

Lawyers for PA recipients filed this lawsuit in 2010 against HRA and the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA). The lawsuit alleges that two notices — “Conciliation Notice” and “Notice of Decision” (also referred to as Notice of Intent to Change Benefits) — that PA recipients received from July 8, 2007 through December 22, 2015, did not comply with New York Social Services Law § 341(1)(a)-(b). These notices were sent to PA recipients prior to the imposition of a sanction for allegedly violating work requirements. The parties have agreed to a settlement of the class action, which must be approved by the Court. This notice sets forth the terms of the proposed settlement and your rights as a potential class member.

What is the Proposed Settlement?

You can see the entire proposed settlement at the websites for HRA (<http://nyc.gov/hra>), OTDA (<http://otda.ny.gov>), and the Legal Aid Society (<http://www.legal-aid.org>). The lawyers believe that the proposed settlement is fair and in the best interests of the class members. Lawyers for the class further believe that continuing the court case would not guarantee a better result, and could take a long time.

The basic terms of the settlement are:

- Correct Sanction History: HRA and OTDA will take steps to revise every class member's sanction history to reduce the number of public assistance sanctions that have not already been removed for another reason by the number of work related sanctions that were imposed from July 8, 2007 through December 22, 2015.
- Restoration of PA Benefits: HRA and OTDA have agreed to issue a one-time special payment of restored PA benefits on behalf of class members who had their PA benefits reduced or stopped for allegedly violating work requirements between July 8, 2007 and December 22, 2015, and who meet other criteria.

Will I get a special payment?

- If you are currently receiving cash assistance as a part of a PA household, a one-time restored PA benefit will be made. This one-time special payment will be made to the original household's Electronic Benefit Transaction (EBT) card whose PA benefit was reduced or discontinued as a result of the work sanction. If the original household is not currently PA active, the payment will be made to the EBT card of the active PA case that you are currently part of. The case name of that PA household will get a special mailing telling you how much the one-time restored PA benefit will be.

How much will I get?

- The amount you will receive is based on a calculation which takes into account: the number of times you were sanctioned between July 8, 2007 and December 22, 2015, your household size; whether there were dependent children in the household; the length of the minimum durational sanction period; whether the conciliation appointment was attended; and when the sanction was imposed.
- For further details regarding how the calculation of the special payments will be made, you are encouraged to review a copy of the proposed settlement, which is available in its entirety on the websites for HRA (<http://nyc.gov/hra>), OTDA (<http://otda.ny.gov>), and the Legal Aid Society, (<http://www.legal-aid.org>).

Do I Have to Do Anything?

If you agree with the settlement, you do not need to do anything further. If the Court approves the settlement, the original or current PA household as described above will receive any restored PA benefits that are due automatically.

Can I Object to the Settlement?

Class members have the right to object to the proposed settlement as not being fair, reasonable, and adequate by appearing and stating your objection, in person or by counsel. The Court has set a hearing for this purpose on _____, 2018 at ____:____.m. at the following address:

Honorable Lucy Billings, Justice of the Supreme Court
Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York
71 Thomas Street, Room 203
New York, NY 10013

Class members may also object to the settlement by sending a letter marked "Smith v. Proud, Index No. 400903/2010, Class Action Settlement" and post-marked by [XXX] to the Court at the address listed above.

Class members may contact attorney Lester Helfman at the Legal Aid Society who has represented the plaintiffs in this lawsuit with any questions at (212) [XXX-XXXX] or via email at [XXXXXX]@legal-aid.org. DO NOT CALL THE COURT.
