

Join Us for 'Meet the Experts' During Pediatric Grand Rounds

March 1, 2023 - 8 a.m.

The Hub for Clinical Collaboration Auditorium

Katherine High, MD

MEET THE EXPERTS – The Story Behind the Breakthrough: Human Gene Therapy

As part of the 100 years of research celebration, you're invited to attend a new five-part series called "Meet the Experts – The Story Behind the Breakthrough," held in a conversational format with Maiken Scott, host and executive producer of WHYY's weekly health and science show, "The Pulse," who will serve as the interviewer/moderator.

"Meet the Experts" first guest will be Katherine High, MD, a gene therapy pioneer at CHOP and Penn, and co-founder of Spark Therapeutics. Dr. High will share her career path, explore the trials and tribulations of successful breakthroughs, and discuss future opportunities for the field.
