

Safely Rolling to My Destination

September 2022

Dear School Administrator:

School districts across the Commonwealth and throughout the country will be observing National School Bus Safety Week October 16th - 20th, 2023. With this in mind, I am pleased to invite your school district to participate in the National School Bus Safety Week Poster Contest.

Enclosed for your information and use are copies of the guidelines for this year's contest. Please read the "Poster Specifications" section carefully.

Posters should be mailed to PennDOT and must be postmarked by March 1, 2023. After receiving the entries, PennDOT will select a First, Second, and Third Place winning poster for each division. The winners will be notified in April. The children who submitted the winning posters will be invited to an awards ceremony in Harrisburg, tentatively to be held at the Governor's Residence, during National School Bus Safety Week.

PennDOT will enter the five First Place winning posters from the state competition into the national competition. The National School Bus Safety Poster Contest Committee will judge the poster submissions in April. The National winners will receive prize money and the overall winning poster will be used in the 2023 National School Bus Safety Campaign.

Your support in this important safety awareness activity is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions regarding the poster contest, please contact PennDOT School Bus Unit at (717) 705-6799.

Sincerely,

National Competition

The five First Place winning posters from the State Competition will be forwarded by PennDOT to the National Competition. Posters selected for final judging will be reviewed by a national board of judges, comprised of prominent individuals in the field of pupil transportation safety. The winning poster will be used for national distribution in 2023.

Criteria for the selection of award-winning posters are:

- A. Relationship of the poster design to school bus safety practices.
- B. Originality of the poster and how the idea is expressed in the poster design.
- C. Artwork and its execution.
- D. Visual impact of the poster design.

All rules regarding poster specification, themes, lettering, etc., must be followed. The penalty for non-compliance will be disqualification of the poster.

All entries become the property of the National School Bus Safety Week (NSBSW) Committee. The right to modify any poster for reproduction is reserved by the NSBSW Committee.

National School Bus Safety Week Poster winners will be awarded for first, second, and third place in each division:

- 1st Place and Overall Winner
- 1st Place Winners of remaining 4 divisions
- 2nd Place Winners of each 5 divisions
- 3rd Place Winners of each 5 divisions

The 1st Place/Overall winning poster will be used to promote National School Bus Safety Week in 2023!!

The National School Bus Safety Week Committee is comprised of members of the National Association for Pupil Transportation, the National School Transportation Association, the National Safety Council's School Transportation Section, the National Association of State Directors of Pupil Transportation Services, and school bus manufacturers and suppliers. You can obtain more information about National School Bus Safety Week by inquiring on the internet at www.napt.org.
